

CAREER SUMMARY – Cheng Chia Hoo

Cheng Chia Hoo graduated from Architecture at Melbourne University in 2006 and has been working at Ande Bunbury Architects since that time. Cheng has a broad understanding of the fundamentals of sustainable design and good working knowledge of many of the products available in this specialist area.

QUALIFICATIONS

2006	Bachelor of Architecture, University of Melbourne
2002	Bachelor of Planning and Design, University of Melbourne
2001	Diploma in Architecture, First Institute of Technology, Kuala Lumpur

EXPERIENCE + PRACTICE

2007 – present	Ande Bunbury Architects , Architecture Assistant Architecture practice focusing on eco friendly and sustainable design.
2003 – 2004	Architectural projects Team , Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia Architecture Assistant on educational, commercial and multi-residential projects
2001	Ouyang Architects , Johor, Malaysia, Architecture Assistant on educational projects and apartment design

PROJECTS

2008	Ingram & Yap Extension, Northcote
2008	Nieman & Negrelli Extension, Northcote
2008	Lawrence Extension, Thornbury
2008	Schinck House, Ross Creek
2007	Watters & Schonfeld House, Smoko
2007	Coburg Library Toilets, Coburg
2007	Whole of Life Eco-Development, Hampton
2007	Littlewood Extension, Lower Plenty Stage 2
2007	Grage Extension, Flinders
2007	Magnusson & Guerin Extension, North Fitzroy
2005	Plarre Extension, West Brunswick
2004	Lomond Hotel, East Brunswick